

I have been a Flight Attendant for Northwest Airlines for 15 years and am totally against the use of cellular phones onboard the aircraft, while inflight!!! This would be very disruptive and obnoxious to all around and I can only imagine how terrible the cabin environment would become with phones ringing and so many talking in what is now one of the few phone-free places we have. PLEASE do not let this happen!!! Kim Kuhlmeier